

Dan Sawyer Given the really hard hitting, incisive commentary on infiltration at the G20 by the CLC, Judy Rebbick, and the 9/11 Truth nuts, I feel like we need to change things up. Since we're all undercover police, there's no point in playing the 'guess who's a cop' game anymore. We should all be trying to guess which one of us ISN'T.

@Dan Sawyer: the evidence of police provocateur activity is in countless videos and thousands of eyewitness accounts of the G20 and there was admittance at Montebello of agent provocateur activity. And there is evidence of agent provocateur activity in Ottawa in the RBC Arson video. Three people in the video but cops don't want to talk about who the third person is. And oddly enough neither do you Dan. I wonder why.

Dan you have got to be the most deeply embedded cop EVER. I always knew you were committed but I had NO IDEA what to!! You are even more dedicated than that FBI agent who married someone in the BPP. Pete's a cop and Dan's a cop!!! Fuck I wonder if I am really a cop?!?!

Jane, I'm used to you not listening to us, but you're ignoring yourself now? Might I direct your attention to your Wednesday, July 14th blog post where you ask the following super useful question:

"Is the Ottawa Movement Defense part of the provocateur activity? Is the self appointed leader Dan Sawyer a police agent?"

You strongly imply it, as ... See Morewell, in the interview you did with that 9/11 dude. And the "Truther Girls" vid, where they repeatedly reference you as the source for their information, flat out says I'm probably a state agent.

I think calling someone a cop or implying that they might be one, without any evidence is about the worst thing you can do to an organizer.

It honestly seems like just a slimey move on your part to undermine Ottawa Movement Defense.

So frankly, Jane, you can go fuck yourself.

[@Dan, Well that might be true if the person was not a cop or state agent of any kind. But I would say a cop infiltrating the activist community for two years is far more destructive then questioning the motives of @Dan I am questioning your motivation for demanding that I remain quiet on the matter of police involvement in the RBC arson. I am being given no reason for silence in a matter that needs to be addressed in Matt and Rogers's interest. If you are not a cop or some kind of state agent then tell why it is beneficial to Matt and Roger that we not discuss a) police involvement and b) the lack of due process that was happening.

3 hours ago · LikeUnlike ·

jane, i doubt dan will answer you - i mean, why bother when he, OMD and pretty much everyone else have already told you our "motivation" many times now, which is that we are respecting the wishes of matt and roger - but you will undoubtedly interpret this lack of response as "proof" that he is a cop. think again, jane.
3 hours ago · LikeUnlike

Dan Sawyer

↑cause that's what they asked us to do, Jane. It's pretty simple. We can make recommendations or offer suggestions, but in the end it's their choice and we have to respect it.

I'd also like to point out yet again that you haven't been to a single court date, talked to any of the defendants on the phone, engaged in correspondence with them, or ... See Moretalked to them in person (except for your one unannounced visit to Roger that resulted in a visit he had requested being cancelled).

So for you to be commenting on this case is just mind bogglingly arrogant. And it's a little insulting to the J18 defendants - why can't you accept that they're able to make choices for themselves on how they want to deal with the situation?

3 hours ago · LikeUnlike

Jane Scharf

I have no access because OMD is refusing to let me see them. And as far as I have heard they were asked by OMD to request silence because that is what the lawyer Greenspon wants. And I do not trust Greenspon and for a variety of reasons I don't trust you. If you want to know why we need to meet in person because some of the information is sensitive.

... See MoreAnd did the don't talk to the media rule not apply to you on Saturday when you got up in front of the media and spoke about Roger Matt and Claude. So Dan if you want silence I need more from you than a dramatic performance. Although I did like the spilled milk and cat joke. But the rest of the dramatics are pretty lame.

2 hours ago · LikeUnlike ·

Jane Scharf

↑@More from earlier now that I am home. Actually I have sent Roger a letter, signed on to visit with OMD, put money in Rogers canteen, visited Roger at OCDC, complained about how poorly the OMD was managing his defense, shook the court to get Matt and Rogers names in the system (which is really a bad thing to be happening) complained publicly ... See Moreabout who the third person in the RBC Arson video was which got the cops to admit publically that there was a police infiltrator in the activist community for two years, accepted a call from Matt and built pressure on Greenspon to set a date for bail hearing, and to defend properly this time. And I am still challenging Greenspon and OMD. AND I don't have to have been in court to know that Roger did not get due process because had he got due process he would be out because he has never even been arrested or charged.
